Dr. Ted Sparr of the University of Texas at Arlington was the featured speaker. Dr. Sparr is coordinating the establishment of the new ten million dollar Advanced Robotics Research Institute in Fort Worth. The center will open in the fall of 1985 and will be one of the top robotics research centers in the nation.

In addition to Dr. Sparr's presentation, we distributed copies of HERO I programs and discussed plans for future projects.

Suggestions for the name of the DPRG newsletter were taken. At the succeeding meeting a vote will be taken to determine the best name. A small prize will then be awarded.
